“Holy Spirit”

Floridian sun descends behind virgin pines as blasts of orange bombard the sky, declaring in union with the three seated below God’s glory.

His heavenly symphony plays for all to hear sweet sounds caress them who but listen—patiently waiting, the seraphim serenade.

Falling darkness dampers not their spiritual exercises panting and hustling to get closer to you, brows dripping in devotion, like yours at Calvary.

Spirit like a pure dove enters in a grand crescendo affirming the sanctity of this spot, these hearts—united in Christ to serve—that gladly flutter for none like you.

-Justin Miller
