A SUNDAY MORNING

On a Sunday morning
Between the conscious and the potency Awake, turning, yearning
Striving to place some regency Atop the topsy-turvy half light Questioning all that's impressed Unable to set the world upright Quivering in bed — in perpetual unrest Hoping to find that sans error Completely unable to accept
The now dawning terror
All powers are fully adept O God, what Have I done
it's true.

John Levay

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

Like
dawn deserted street
or rapid run river
Like
summer soft sunset
or
whistled wind whisper Dawn flowing death whispers softly.

FOLKLORE

Under the spreading chestnut tree,
I slipped and broke my neck.
