Cover Page Footnote

Appeared in the issue: Volume 11, Number 2, Spring 1966.

the night
is singing the blues
her fiery eyes
are covered with weeping lids
from which the tears
flow freely
rapping and slapping
my lonely face

look up look up
see her featureless countenance
look up look up
feast upon her depth
reach it touch it
pull it down
rap it around you
—your soul—

the night is singing the blues crying the blues
my blues
our blues—
